CHAPTER 104.

AN ACT TO MAKE PROVISION WITH RESPECT TO MILITARY SERVICE IN CONNECTION WITH THE PRESENT WAR.

[27th January 1916.]

Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Obligation of unmarried men to serve.

1. (1) Every male British subject who—

(a) on the fifteenth day of August nineteen hundred and fifteen, was ordinarily resident in Great Britain, and had attained the age of eighteen years and had not attained the age of forty-one years ; and

(b) on the second day of November nineteen hundred and fifteen was unmarried or was a widower without any child dependent on him ;

shall unless he either is within the exceptions set out in the First Schedule to this Act, or has attained the age of forty-one years before the appointed date, be deemed as from the appointed date to have been duly enlisted in His Majesty's regular forces for general service with the colours or in the reserve for the period of the war, and to have been forthwith transferred to the reserve.

(2) The Army Act (with the exception of section ninety-six thereof, which relates to the claim of masters to apprentices) and the Reserve Forces Acts, 1882 to 1907, and any orders and regulations made thereunder, shall apply accordingly to any man who is so deemed to have been enlisted and transferred to the reserve, and if any question arises in any legal proceeding under any of those Acts, orders, or regulations whether any man is a man who is under this section deemed to have been enlisted and transferred to the reserve or not, the court may require the man to give evidence on the question, and if satisfactory evidence is not given to the contrary the man shall be deemed to have been so enlisted and transferred :

Provided that—

(a) where the question, whether a man is a man who, under this section is deemed to have been enlisted and transferred to the reserve or not, is raised on proceedings in respect of an offence alleged to have been committed by the man as a member of the reserve whilst he was a member of the reserve in pursuance of the transfer under this Act, or in respect of any alleged failure to comply with any order calling him up from the reserve for permanent service, that question shall be decided only on proceedings before a civil court ; and

(b) no such proceedings shall be instituted except during the continuance of the present war and a period of six months thereafter ; and

(c) a man who is deemed to have been enlisted and transferred to the reserve under this section shall not be liable to suffer death in respect of failure to obey an order calling him up from the reserve for permanent service.

(3) Provision shall be made under section twenty of the Reserve Forces Act, 1882, for information being obtained from men who are transferred to the reserve under this section as to preference for naval service and the Admiralty shall have the first call on such men in case their services are needed for that purpose. 45 & 46 Vict. c. 48.

(4) This section shall apply to any male British subject who, since the fifteenth day of August nineteen hundred and fifteen, has become or hereafter becomes ordinarily resident in Great Britain in the same manner as it applies to a male British subject who was ordinarily resident in Great Britain on the fifteenth day of August nineteen hundred and fifteen, with the substitution in the case of a man becoming so resident after the appointed date of the thirtieth day after he has become so resident for the appointed date.

Certificates of exemption.

2. (1) An application may be made at any time before the appointed date to the Local Tribunal established under this Act or by or in respect of any man for the issue to him of a certificate of exemption from the provisions of this Act—

(c) on the ground that it is expedient in the national interests that he should, instead of being employed in military service, be engaged in other work in which he is habitually engaged or in which he wishes to be engaged or, if he is being educated or trained for any work, that he should continue to be so educated or trained, or

(d) on the ground that serious hardship would ensue, if the man were called up for Army Service, owing to his exceptional financial or business obligations or domestic position; or

(e) on the ground of ill-health or infirmity; or

(f) on the ground of a conscientious objection to the undertaking of combatant service; and the Local Tribunal, if they consider the grounds of the application established, shall grant such a certificate.

The Local Tribunal may allow an application to be made after the appointed date in any case in which it is shown to their satisfaction that the failure to make the application within the required time has arisen owing to the absence of the applicant abroad, or owing to any other cause which appears to the Tribunal to afford a reasonable ground for allowing the application to be so made.

(2) Certificates of exemption from the provisions of this Act may also be granted by any Government Department, after consultation with the Army Council, to men, or classes or bodies of men, in the service or employment of that Department or, in cases where it appears to the department that certificates can be more conveniently granted by the department than by the Local Tribunal, to men or classes or bodies of men who are employed or engaged or qualified for employment or engagement in any work which is certified by the Department to be work of national importance and whose exemption comes within the sphere of the Department

If any question arises whether any person or body of persons is to be treated as a Government Department, or as a separate Government Department, for the purposes of this provision, or whether any exemption comes within the sphere of one Department or another, the question shall be referred to the Treasury, and the decision of the Treasury thereon shall be final for the purposes of this section.

Where a certificate is granted by a Government Department to a class or body of men, regulations made under this Act with respect to the constitution functions and procedure of Local Tribunals may provide for the grant of individual certificates to men belonging to that body or class by Local Tribunals in such cases and subject to such provisions as may be prescribed by the regulations.

(3) Any certificate of exemption may be absolute, conditional, or temporary, as the authority by whom it was granted think best attuned to the case, and also in the case of an application on conscientious grounds, may take the form of an exemption from combatant service only, or may be conditional as the applicant being engaged in some work which in the opinion of the Tribunal dealing with the case is of national importance

Provided that a certificate granted on the ground of the continuance of education or training, or on the ground of exceptional financial or business obligations or domestic position, shall be a conditional or temporary certificate only.

No certificate of exemption shall be conditional upon a person to whom it is granted continuing in or entering into employment under any specified employer or in any specified place or establishment.

(4) Where a conditional certificate is granted the conditions upon which it is granted shall be stated on the certificate

(5) Any Government Department may direct that any certificates granted by or on behalf of that Department before the appointed date as to employment on work for war purposes may be treated as certificates of exemption for the purposes of this Act.

(6) Where a certificate of exemption is destroyed, mislaid, or defaced, the authority by whom it was granted shall, upon the application of the man to whom it was granted and upon payment of a fee of a shilling, issue a duplicate of the certificate to him.

(7) The Local Tribunal, Appeal Tribunal, and Central Tribunal shall be constituted in accordance with the provisions of the Second Schedule to this Act and any decision of the Local Tribunal or Appeal Tribunal shall be subject to appeal as provided in that Schedule

Supplemental provisions as to certificates of exemption.

3. (1) A certificate of exemption may be reviewed or renewed at any time by the Local Tribunal or the Government Department, as may be directed by regulations made under this Act with respect to the constitution, functions and procedure of Local Tribunals, on the application either of the holder of the certificate or of any person generally or specially authorised for the purpose by the Army Council, and may be withdrawn or varied if the authority by whom the certificate is reviewed are of opinion that, in the circumstances of the case, the certificate should be withdrawn or varied.

(2) It shall be the duty of any man holding a conditional certificate, if the conditions on which the certificate was granted are no longer satisfied, to give notice to the authority mentioned in the certificate that the conditions are no longer satisfied; and if he fails without reasonable cause or excuse to do so, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds.

(3) Where a certificate of exemption ceases to be in force owing to the withdrawal of the certificate or the failure to comply with the conditions on which the certificate was granted or the expiration of the time for which the certificate was granted, the man to whom the certificate was granted shall, on from the expiration of two months after the date on which the certificate so ceases to be in force, be deemed to have been enlisted and transferred to the reserve in the same manner as if no such certificate had been granted unless in the meantime the man has obtained a renewal of his certificate

(4) If for the purpose of obtaining exemption for himself or any other person, or for the purpose of obtaining the renewal, variation, or withdrawal of a certificate of exemption, any person makes any false statement or false representation, he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months with or without hard labour.

(5) Where an application has been made by or in respect of any man for a certificate of exemption or for a renewal of such certificate, he shall not be called up for service with the colours until the application has been finally disposed of.

Short title and commencement.

4. This Act may be cited as the Military Service Act, 1916, and shall come into operation on such day as His Majesty may fix by proclamation, not being more than fourteen days after the passing thereof.

The appointed date for the purposes of this Act shall be the twenty-first day after the day on which this Act comes into operation.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

EXCEPTIONS.

Section 1 (3).

1. Men ordinarily resident in His Majesty's Dominions abroad, or resident in Great Britain for the purpose only of their education or for some other special purpose.

2. Members of His Majesty's regular or reserve forces, or of the forces raised by the Governments of His Majesty's Dominions, and members of the Territorial Force who are liable for foreign service or who are, in the opinion of the Army Council, not suited for foreign service.

3. Men serving in the NAVY, or the Royal Marines, or who, though not serving in the Navy or Royal Marines, are recommended for exception by the Admiralty.

4. Men in holy orders or regular ministers of any religious denomination.

5. Men who have left or been discharged from the naval or military service of the Crown in consequence of disablement or ill-health (excluding officers who have ceased to hold a commission in consequence of disablement or ill health), and, subject to any provision which may hereafter be made by Parliament, men who have been discharged from the naval or military service of the Crown on the termination of their period of service.

6. Men who hold a certificate of exemption under this Act for the time being in force (other than a certificate of exemption from combatant service only), or who have offered themselves for enlistment and been rejected since the fourteenth day of August nineteen hundred and fifteen.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

CONSTITUTION OF TRIBUNALS.

Section 3 (7).

1. There shall be a Local Tribunal for each local registration district under the National Registration Act, 1915, in Great Britain, or for any division of any such district which may be adapted for the purpose by the registration authority of the district, consisting of such persons, not less than five and not exceeding twenty-five in number, as may be appointed for the purpose by that authority.

2. There shall be Appeal Tribunals, acting within such areas as His Majesty may appoint, consisting of such persons as may be appointed for the purpose by His Majesty.

3. Tribunals may act through committees appointed by them, consisting of members of the tribunal.

4. There shall be a Central Tribunal for Great Britain consisting of such persons as may be appointed for the purpose by His Majesty.

5. His Majesty may by Order in Council make regulations with respect to the constitution, functions and procedure of the local Tribunals, the Appeal Tribunals and the Central Tribunal; and, so far as provision is not made for procedure by those regulations, the procedure of the tribunal shall be such as may be determined by the tribunal.

Regulations made under this provision shall contain instructions to the Local and Appeal Tribunals given with a view to securing uniformity of decision and practice amongst the several tribunals.

Any Order in Council under this provision may be revoked or varied by any subsequent Order in Council and any regulations made under any such Order shall, as soon as may be, be presented to Parliament.

6. If any difficulty arises with respect to the constitution of Local Tribunals, or otherwise in relation to the operation of this Act with respect to Local Tribunals, the Local Government Board, or, as respects Scotland, the Secretary for Scotland, may make any appointments and do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for the establishment of those tribunals or for securing the full operation of this Act with respect to those tribunals.

Appeal.

1. Any person aggrieved by the decision of a Local Tribunal, and any person generally or specially authorised to appeal from the decision of that tribunal by the Army Council, may appeal against the decision of a Local Tribunal to the Appeal Tribunal of the area.

2. Any person aggrieved by the decision of an Appeal Tribunal, and any person generally or specially authorised to appeal from the decision of that tribunal by the Army Council, may, by leave of the Appeal Tribunal, appeal to the Central Tribunal.

CHAPTER 15.

AN ACT TO MAKE FURTHER PROVISION WITH RESPECT TO MILITARY SERVICE DURING THE PRESENT WAR.

[26th May 1916.]

Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Extension and continued operation of Military Service Act, 1916

5 & 6 Geo. 5, c. 104.

1. (1) Every male British subject who has at any time since the fourteenth day of August nineteen hundred and fifteen been, or for the time being is, ordinarily resident in Great Britain, and who for the time being has attained the age of eighteen years and has not attained the age of forty-one years, shall, unless he either is for the time being within the exceptions set out in the First Schedule to the Military Service Act, 1916 (in this Act referred to as the principal Act), as amended by this Act or any subsequent enactment, or has attained the age of forty-one years before the appointed date, be deemed as from the appointed date to have been duly enlisted in His Majesty's regular forces for general service with the colours or in the reserve for the period of the war, and to have been forthwith transferred to the reserve:

Provided that steps shall be taken to prevent so far as possible the sending of men to serve abroad before they attain the age of nineteen.

The appointed date shall, as respects men who come within the operation of this section on the passing of this Act, be the thirtieth day after the date of the passing of this Act, and, as respects men who come within the operation of this section after the passing of this Act, be the thirtieth day after the date on which they so come within the operation of this section.

(2) All the provisions of the principal Act, as amended by this Act, with the exception of those defining the appointed date shall, so far as applicable, extend to men to whom this section applies in the same manner as to men to whom section one of that Act applied.

(3) Sub-section (4) of section one of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

4 & 5 Geo. 5, c. 53. 7 Edw. 7, c. 9

Prolongation of expiring terms of service.

2. During the continuance of the present war, sub-section (1) of section eighty-seven of the Army Act, and sub-section (5) of section nine of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907 (which relate to prolongation of service in certain cases), shall have effect as if after the words "not exceeding twelve months" where they occur in those sub-sections respectively there were inserted the words "or in the case of men whose time for discharge occurs before the end of the present war not exceeding the duration of the war":

Provided that this section shall not apply in the case of men who when their time for discharge occurs have served a period of twelve years or more and have attained the age of forty one years.

Modification of exceptions from service.

3. (1) Paragraph five of the First Schedule to the principal Act shall cease to have effect so far as it relates to men who have been discharged from the naval or military service of the Crown on the termination of their period of service:

Provided that where a man is transferred to the reserve in pursuance of the principal Act, or this Act, he shall, if he has been so discharged from the military service of the Crown as a warrant officer or non-commissioned officer, be restored to the military rank which he held immediately before the termination of his military service.

(2) Paragraph six of the First Schedule to the principal Act shall, on the first day of September nineteen hundred and sixteen, cease to apply to a man who has offered himself for enlistment and been rejected since the fourteenth day of August nineteen hundred and fifteen, if the Army Council are satisfied that he should again present himself for medical examination, and send him written notice to that effect before the first mentioned date.

(3) Sub-section (5) of section two of the principal Act shall have effect as if the words "before the appointed date" were omitted therefrom.

Provisions as to certificates of exemption.

4. (1) Where a decision of a local tribunal has been varied on appeal to the appeal tribunal, any certificate of exemption granted in pursuance thereof shall be reviewed or renewed only by the appeal tribunal by whom the decision has been varied, or by such other appeal tribunal as may be provided by regulations, on an application made direct to that tribunal and the provisions of the principal Act as to the review or renewal of certificates of exemption shall apply accordingly.

(2) A certificate of exemption may be granted under the principal Act subject to the condition that the certificate shall not be renewable or open to variation except on an application made with the leave of the tribunal on whose decision the certificate has been so granted, and, unless leave is so given, the provisions of the principal Act as to the renewal or variation of certificates shall not apply to a certificate granted subject to such a condition.

The decision of the tribunal granting or refusing leave under this provision shall be final.

(3) It is hereby declared that the power to grant special certificates of exemption in the case of an application on conscientious grounds under sub section (3) of section two of the principal Act is additional to and not in derogation of the general power conferred by that Act to grant an absolute, conditional, or temporary certificate in such cases.

(4) Paragraph six of the Second Schedule to the principal Act shall have effect as if for the expression "local tribunals" wherever that expression occurs there were substituted the word "tribunals."

(5) Regulations made under the Second Schedule to the principal Act may provide for permitting the rehearing of a case by a tribunal in cases specified in the regulations.

Amendment of s. 2 (3) of principal Act.

5. The provision in sub-section (3) of section two of the principal Act that no certificate of exemption shall be conditional upon a person to whom it is granted continuing in or entering into employment under any specified employer or in any specified place or estal lishment, shall not apply to a certificate of exemption granted on the ground of a conscientious objection to the undertaking of combatant service.

Amendment of s. 3 (2) of principal Act.

6. Sub-section (2) of section three of the principal Act shall, as respects certificates which cease to be in force after the date of the passing of the Act, apply only to the case of men who have been engaged in an occupation certified by a government department to be work of national importance, and who were engaged in such an occupation before the fifteenth day of August nineteen hundred and fifteen, and in the case of men whose conditions of employment have been subject to the provisions of section seven of the Munitions of War Act, 1915, as amended by any subsequent enactment, and who were in the same employment or engaged in the same or similar occupation before the fifteenth day of August nineteen hundred and fifteen, and in all other cases the sub-section shall be construed as if "two weeks" were substituted for "two months," and as if the words "unless in the meantime the man has made an application for a renewal of his certificate" were substituted for the words "unless in the meantime the man has obtained a renewal of his certificate." 5 & 6 Geo. 5, c. 54.

Provision as to exemption of medical practitioners.

7. Regulations made under the Second Schedule to the principal Act shall provide for the establishment of professional committees to deal with claims for exemption made by duly qualified medical practitioners; and any application made by such a medical practitioner on any ground, other than that of conscientious objection, for a certificate of exemption shall be referred by the tribunal to whom it is made to such a committee in accordance with those regulations; and the recommendation of the committee on the application shall be binding on any tribunal constituted under the principal Act.

Exemption for prisoners of war, etc.

8. Nothing in this or the principal Act shall operate so as to render liable to military service any person who has at any time since the beginning of the war been a prisoner of war, captured or interned by the enemy, and has been released or exchanged.

Proof of offences in connexion with deserters and absentees.

9. During the continuance of the present war section one hundred and fifty three of the Army Act and section seventeen of the Reserve Forces Act, 1882 (which relate to offences in connexion with deserters and absentees), shall have effect as though the following provision were inserted at the end of each of those sections:— 6 & 46 Vict. c. 48.

"For the purposes of this section a person shall be deemed to have knowledge unless he proves that he had not knowledge."

and it is hereby declared that, in the application of any provisions of either of those Acts to men who are deemed to have been enlisted and transferred to the reserve in pursuance of the principal Act or this Act, the expression "court of summary jurisdiction" as respects Scotland includes any magistrate or magistrates, by whatever name called, officiating under the provisions of any general or local Police Act.

Duty to produce certificate of exemption or to give particulars.

10. (1) Every man who holds a certificate of exemption granted under the Principal Act shall, if required by a constable or by any person who has authority for the purpose from the Army Council, produce his certificate or give particulars as to the authority by which the certificate was granted and the grounds on which it was granted.

If any man fails to comply with this provision or gives particulars which are false in any material respect, he shall in respect of such offence be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months.

(2) If any person alters or tampers with a certificate of exemption granted under the principal Act, or personates or falsely represents himself to be a person to whom such a certificate has been granted, or improperly allows any other person to have possession of any such certificate issued for his use alone, he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

Provision as to notices etc.

11. Notices served for the purposes of the principal Act or this Act shall not be deemed to be invalid on the ground only that they were served before the Act came into operation or before the man in respect of whom they are served became a member of the reserve.

Transfer to reserve under special circumstances.

12. The Army Council may make arrangements, to take effect during the continuance of the present war, for the transfer to the reserve of any member of the regular forces or for the temporary demobilization of any member of the territorial forces, notwithstanding anything in any Act or in the terms of his enlistment, in cases where the transfer or demobilization appears expedient in the general interests of the country and the Army Council are satisfied that it can be effected under conditions which will render the man transferred or demobilized immediately available for service in the case of military necessity:

Provided that during such period of transfer or demobilization the man shall not be subject to military discipline.

5 & 6 Geo. 5, c. 43.

Amendment of the Army (Transfers) Act, 1915.

13. The first proviso to section one of the Army (Transfers) Act, 1915 (which provides for the maintenance of the rate of pay of a soldier transferred to a corps not of the same arm or branch of the service as the corps in which he was serving) shall not have effect in cases in which the Army Council direct that that proviso shall not apply.

Transfer of officers and men of the territorial force.

14. (1) During the continuance of the present war, notwithstanding anything in section seven of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, the orders and regulations for the government and discipline of the territorial force made under that section—

(a) May authorise a man of the territorial force when belonging to one corps to be transferred without his consent to another corps, and may authorise a man of the territorial force to be posted without his consent to a battalion or other body of the regular forces included in the corps to which he belongs or is transferred; and

(b) In the case of an officer or man in the territorial force who is liable to service outside the United Kingdom may, for the purposes of such service, and notwithstanding anything in any instrument defining the conditions of such service, authorise the drafting of any such officer or man to any unit of the territorial force within the corps to which he belongs or to which he may be transferred;

and those orders and regulations shall also provide for the maintenance of the rate of pay of a man who is transferred without his consent to a different arm or branch of the service except in cases in which it appears undesirable to the Army Council that the rate of pay should be so maintained.

(2) This section shall affect officers or men of the territorial force notwithstanding that they were commissioned, enlisted, or re-engaged before the date of any order or regulation under this section.

Power to form corps for more than one country.

15. During the continuance of the present war section nine of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, shall be construed as authorising corps to be formed for more than one country.

Provision as to liability of territorials to serve outside the United Kingdom.

16. Where an officer or man of the territorial force has, before or after the passing of this Act, accepted liability to serve in any place out of the United Kingdom, that liability shall continue, notwithstanding anything in the conditions of service, during the continuance of the present war, unless the competent military authority, as defined for the purposes of Part II of the Army Act, otherwise direct.

Short title, citation, and repeal

17. (1) This Act may be cited as the Military Service Act, 1916 (Session 2), and the principal Act and this Act shall be read together, and may be cited together as the Military Service Acts, 1916; and the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, and this Act (so far as they relate to the territorial forces) may be cited together as the Territorial Force Acts, 1907 and 1916.

(2) The enactments specified in the Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column of that Schedule.

2. NAVAL PRIZE (PROCEDURE) ACT, 1916

(9 Geo. 5, c. 2.)

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW AS TO THE JURISDICTION OF PRIZE COURTS IN THE CASE OF PROCEEDINGS AGAINST PERSONS IN HIS MAJESTY'S NAVAL SERVICE OR IN THE EMPLOYMENT OF THE ADMIRALTY AND AS TO THE TRANSFER OF PROCEEDINGS IN PRIZE.

[2nd March 1916.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

27 & 28 Vict., c. 25.

Proceedings in Prize Courts against naval officers, &c.

1. So much of section fifty-one of the Naval Prize Act, 1864, as provides that actions and proceedings against any person in His Majesty's Naval service or in the employment of the Admiralty shall not be brought or instituted elsewhere than in the United Kingdom shall, so far as not already repealed by the Public Authorities Protection Act, 1893, be repealed, and such repeal shall take effect as from the fourth day of August, nineteen hundred and fourteen.

2. Section one of the Prize Courts Act, 1915 (which relates to the transfer of proceedings against a ship or cargo from one prize court to another), shall be extended so as to apply, with the necessary modifications, to all proceedings pending at any time in a prize court, whether or not the proceedings are against any ship or cargo: 5 & 6 Geo. 5, c. 47.

Extension of power to transfer proceedings in Prize Courts.

Provided that where the proceedings are against a person in the service of His Majesty, or of the Government of any part of His Majesty's Dominions, or of any Government department, the court shall (except in the case of proceedings in the High Court of Justice in England) on the application of the proper officer of the Crown, make an order transferring the proceedings to another prize court, and the said section one, as amended by this section, shall have effect accordingly.

3. This Act may be cited as the Naval Prize (Procedure) Act, 1916, and the Naval Prize Acts 1864 to 1915, and this Act may be cited together as the Naval Prize Acts, 1864 to 1916.

No. 21.—The following resolution of the Government of India is republished :—

FINANCE DEPARTMENT.

No. 361-E.A.

Simla, the 24th July, 1918.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Finance Department.

In Chapter III of their Report the Royal Commission on Decentralisation made certain recommendations regarding (a) the general financial relations between the Government of India and the local Governments, and (b) the enhancement of the powers of sanction enjoyed by the latter. The orders of the Government of India on the Commission's recommendations in respect of the first of these questions have already been published in their Finance Department Resolution No. 27-F., dated the 18th May 1912. The Government of India have now examined, with reference to the Commission's recommendations, the question of enhancing the powers of sanction of local Governments in respect of Provincial and Imperial expenditure; and they are pleased, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, to issue revised rules defining the financial powers of sanction and control which will be exercised by local Governments with which regular Provincial Settlements have been concluded, and stating the terms and conditions under which the administration of Provincial revenue and expenditure will in future be regulated by them. These rules are contained in the annexure to this Resolution, and supersede those contained in the Finance and Commerce Department Resolution No. 3531-A., dated the 11th August 1897. Some of them have already been published in the Finance Department Resolution No. 248-E.A., dated the 15th July 1912, but are included in the annexure to the present Resolution so as to make it a complete and self-contained document. For the sake of convenience, the general terms and conditions of the Provincial Settlements, so far as they define the duties and obligations of Provincial Governments, have also been reproduced in the annexure.

NOTE.—The term "regular Provincial Settlements" as used in this Resolution includes settlements made on a provisional basis pending the subsequent introduction of a permanent settlement, as is at present the case in Bengal, Bihar and Orissa, and Assam. But it excludes the quasi-provincial settlements referred to in paragraph 2 of the Resolution.

2. Subject to the exception stated in note 4 to clause (18) of rule 16 of the annexed rules, the local Administrations of the North-West Frontier Province and Baluchistan, with which "quasi-provincial" settlements have been concluded, will exercise, in the case of all items of revenue and expenditure included in these settlements, the same powers of control and sanction as are given by these rules to the Provincial Governments mentioned above, in respect of revenue and expenditure classified under heads of account which are wholly Provincial or are divided in fixed proportions between Imperial and Provincial. Such powers shall be exercised subject to—

(a) The rules of finance and procedure given in rules 5 to 10 and 24 to 26 appended to this Resolution.

(b) The condition that all growth in the quasi-provincial expenditure must be restricted by the development of the assigned revenues, except in special cases where a contribution has been sanctioned by the Government of India outside the terms of the settlement.

These two Administrations will also exercise in respect of Imperial expenditure not included in their quasi-provincial settlements the powers of sanction which are given by the rules appended to this Resolution to Provincial Governments in respect of wholly Imperial expenditure. They will not however, possess the powers in respect of loans and advances mentioned in the rules, except to the extent mentioned below :—

(i) They may sanction loans falling within class I mentioned in rule 27 out of allotments placed at their disposal by the Government of India, subject to the rules contained in Section VI of the annexure.

(ii) They may, under similar conditions, sanction loans to land-holders and notabilities up to a limit of Rs. 20,000 in any year and of Rs. 5,000 in any one case.

3. The Civil Service Regulations and other authorized codes will be eventually amended in accordance with the terms of this Resolution. Pending such revision, the provisions of these codes and regulations will remain in force except in so far as they are clearly superseded by any rule in this Resolution.

4. It is to be clearly understood that the rules now issued deal solely with the specific financial powers of sanction and control possessed by local Governments. The power of administrative control which is vested in the Government of India is not affected.

ANNEXURE.

RULES DEFINING THE FINANCIAL POWERS OF PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENTS.

I. Certain conditions common to all Provincial settlements.

1. The revenue received and the expenditure incurred on the public service in each province is to be classified as Imperial or Provincial according to the lists in Schedules A and B attached to this Resolution. All revenue recorded on the books of the Account Officer of the province, which, according to the established system of public accounts is classified under the heads named in column 2 of Schedule A, will be Provincial to the extent stated in column 3 of the Schedule, and all expenditure recorded on the books of the Account Offices of the provinces which is similarly classified under the heads named in column 2 of Schedule B, will be provincial to the extent stated in column 3. This definition gives the sole test prescribed in the settlement made with the local Government for deciding whether any item of revenue or expenditure is provincial.

NOTE.—The term "divided heads" refers to those major and minor heads the revenue or expenditure under which is divided in fixed proportions between Imperial and Provincial.

3. Inter-provincial adjustments are not ordinarily allowed. But such adjustments may be made through the exchange accounts by mutual agreement, and with the approval of the Comptroller General, in special cases where (a) the services of a joint establishment are utilised by two or more Provincial Governments; or (b) a local Government desires for special reasons to contribute from its Provincial revenues towards an educational or other institution or to any other scheme of expenditure in another province; or (c) if any charge of an exceptional nature which ought ordinarily to be borne by one province is paid in another province. All cases of dispute between Provincial Governments regarding such adjustments should be referred for the orders of the Government of India.

4. Expenditure under the head "33. Famine Relief" will be wholly Provincial in Burma and Assam. In the other provinces its incidence will be determined according to the following rules:—

(a) The amount shown against each of the seven provinces in column 2 of the table below will, until the limit indicated in column 3 is reached, be added to its revenues annually by a special Imperial contribution which will be adjusted through the head "transfers between Imperial and Provincial."

Provinces.	Amount to be credited annually.	Limit of amount to be held at credit of Provincial Government.
	Rs.	Rs.
Madras	2,50,000	25,00,000
Bombay	13,70,000	30,00,000
Bengal	60,000	6,00,000
United Provinces	4,50,000	30,00,000
Punjab	1,40,000	10,00,000
Bihar and Orissa	2,00,000	20,00,000
Central Provinces	12,50,000	30,00,000

(b) The amount thus added to the revenues of a province will in each year be debited in the Provincial section of its accounts under the head "36. Reduction or Avoidance of Debt."

(c) An administrative or pro-forma account will be maintained by the Comptroller General for each province, showing on its credit side the amount charged each year in the Provincial section of its accounts under the head "Reduction or Avoidance of Debt" [vide clause (b)], and on the debit side the charges incurred for famine relief as in clause (d) below. The net amount at the credit of any province in any year will be carried forward to its pro-forma account for next year, and the balance at credit of each province will be allowed to accumulate until the figure shown in column 3 of the table in clause (a) has been reached. The procedure described in clauses (a) and (b) will then cease until the balance at credit of the province in its pro-forma account is reduced by actual famine relief expenditure.

(d) When famine occurs in a province, all expenditure which, under the ordinary rules of account, is debitable to the head "33. Famine Relief" will be wholly Imperial up to the limit of the balance standing to the credit of the Provincial Government in the pro forma account prescribed in clause (c).

(e) If the expenditure under the head "33. Famine Relief" exceeds the amount of such credit the excess will be charged to Imperial and Provincial in equal shares.

5. Provincial Governments are expected to maintain all the Provincial services in a state of administrative efficiency, providing any additional funds which may be necessary for this purpose either from the curtailment of other expenditure, or from the development of Provincial revenues.

II. General limitations to the financial powers of Provincial Governments.

6. The delegation to Provincial Governments of the power of control over a portion of the public revenues is subject to the following general conditions.

Without the previous sanction of the Government of India* :—

(1) No additional taxation may be imposed, and no fundamental change may be made in any existing system of revenue management.

(2) No new general service or duty may be undertaken.

(3) The rates of duty on spirits and drugs may not be altered in any case in which the alteration is likely to affect the excise arrangement of neighbouring provinces, without the concurrence of the Provincial Government concerned.

(4) The rates of discount upon the retail of stamps and court-fees labels may not be altered.

(5) As a general rule, no item hitherto credited to general revenues, Imperial or Provincial, may be alienated to form an asset of any local or special fund.

But a Provincial Government may, without previous reference to the Government of India, assign to a local body or a special fund, constituted by law, petty items of wholly Provincial revenue of a recurring character, which are not derived from the proceeds of general taxation and the yield of which does not on an average exceed Rs. 25,000 a year.

NOTE.—For the definition of a local fund or local body as used in this clause, see article 93, Civil Service Regulations.

(6) No public money may be removed from the public treasury for investment or deposit elsewhere. The Government of India, who are responsible for the provision of ways and means for the public service in all departments, retain in their own hands unconditional control over all money in the public treasury; and a Provincial Government may not withdraw such money except for expenditure upon the public service.

(7) No alteration may be made in the form or procedure of the public accounts. In particular, Provincial Governments may not issue orders directing the division of a charge between two or more heads of account; the Comptroller General ordinarily decides the proper classification of an item in the accounts.

(8) No services previously rendered to other departments at the charge of departments made over to the control of the Provincial Governments may be diminished, and no services previously rendered to the latter departments at the charge of the former may be increased.

(9) No main artery of communication, such as a trunk road, may be abandoned, or allowed to fall out of repair.

(10) No delegation of financial powers may be made to an authority subordinate to the Provincial Government except in cases where such delegation is expressly provided for in any authorised code, or by any order of the Secretary of State in Council or by any existing order of the Government of India.

But when a Provincial Government is empowered to create an appointment (permanent or temporary), and on the creation of such an appointment certain powers can be vested in the incumbent, it may, as an alternative to the creation of such appointment, delegate the same powers to some existing authority of lower status. Such delegation shall remain in force only for such term as that for which the Provincial Government would have been competent to sanction the new appointment above referred to.

(11) No expenditure may be incurred (except in cases in which authority is granted to a Provincial Government under these rules) which is—

(a) Of an unusual nature; or—

(b) Devoted to objects outside the ordinary work of administration; or—

(c) Likely to involve at a later date expenditure beyond the powers of sanction of the Provincial Government.

(12) No pension or gratuity may be granted to an official that is not admissible under the provisions of the Civil Service Regulations or any other authorised general code, or under any general authority conferred on Provincial Governments by, or with the approval of, the Secretary of State in Council.

(13) A Provincial Government cannot raise for its own finances any loan in the open market. Its power to sanction the raising of loans in the open market by local bodies is subject to the provisions of Acts of the legislature and of rules framed thereunder by competent authority.

6. The financial powers of Provincial Governments are subject to the supervision and control of the Government of India; and a Provincial Government is bound to observe any general or specific instructions which the Supreme Government may issue from time to time in the exercise of its powers of supervision and control. The Governor General in Council expressly reserves the right of issuing instructions to local Governments on general or particular matters affecting Provincial estimates, and revenues and services, when such action seems to him expedient.

7. Subject to the limitations and restrictions prescribed in these rules, Provincial Governments are exercise, in respect of Provincial and Divided heads of revenue and expenditure, all the financial powers of sanction and control which are exercised by the Government of India over the revenues of India or the expenditure therefrom under the Finance Department Resolution No. 318 Gl. (E.A.), dated the 15th March 1913, as amended from time to time. In addition they can also exercise, in respect of the same heads, the powers vested in Provincial Governments under the provisions of the Civil Service Regulations, the Civil Account Code, the Public Works Department Code, the Forest Code and any other authorised code issued with the approval of the Government of India. They are, however, bound to observe the rules in these codes, except where authority is granted by the Resolution to incur expenditure not admissible thereunder. As regards revenue and expenditure which is wholly Imperial, their powers are further limited by the rules contained in this Resolution. As regards wholly Imperial expenditure recorded under the head "38 Famine Relief," a Provincial Government exercises the same powers of sanction as it does in the case of expenditure which is wholly or partly Provincial.

8. Any payments which are in excess of those admissible under the codes referred to in rule 7 or under any general or specific orders of the Secretary of State in Council or the Government of India, as well as any expenditure which is beyond the power of a Provincial Government to sanction, will require the sanction of higher authority.

But a Provincial Government may in individual cases, and for special reasons which should be communicated to the Audit Officer—

(1) Grant an officiating officer a higher salary than is authorised by the codes, subject to a maximum limit of Rs. 250 per mensem, and subject to the condition that his salary must not exceed the pay of the officer for whom he acts.

(2) Relax the conditions or limitations prescribed by any rule in any authorised code, without contravening its general spirit, so as to grant to an officer travelling allowance, not exceeding Rs. 1,000 in any case, in cases where no travelling allowance is admissible under a strict interpretation of the rule.

(3) In cases not coming under clauses (1) and (2) above, relax the conditions or limitations prescribed by any rule in an authorised code or by an order of the Government of India, without contravening its general spirit, subject to the condition that the total amount payable under the sanction does not exceed Rs. 5,000 in any case if charged wholly or partly to Provincial, and Rs. 1,000 if charged wholly to Imperial, funds.

NOTE.—All sanctions given under the above conditions must be subject to the further condition that the expenditure would in any case be within the power of the Government of India to sanction and would not require a reference to the Secretary of State. Each such sanction must moreover quote the appropriate provision of the present rule for the information of the Audit Officer concerned.

9. A Provincial Government has no authority to give effect to any part of a scheme of which any one item requires the sanction of higher authority, though in seeking the sanction of such authority to the scheme as a whole, it will be sufficient to indicate the total financial effect of the remaining items of the scheme without entering into the details comprising that total, save in so far as some exposition of these may be necessary to justify the item requiring higher sanction.

III. Restrictions on powers of local Governments with regard to expenditure which is wholly Provincial or is charged to a divided head

10. The sanction of the Government of India is required *:

(1) To the creation of any new permanent appointment which would ordinarily be held by a gazetted civil officer recruited in England or by an officer of an Imperial services defined in article 29-B, Civil Service Regulations; to the raising of the pay of such an appointment or officer; and, except as permitted by an authorised code, to any addition to the emoluments of such an appointment or officer by the grant of allowances of any kind (whether included or not in the definition of "remuneration").

DEFINITION.—Remuneration includes, besides monthly substantive pay or salary, all payments to officers from general revenues (i.e., Imperial and Provincial revenues, as well as the revenues of local funds administered by Government) whether in the nature of fixed allowances, subject to the exceptions specified below, or of fees, rewards (except language rewards other than those which take the form of monthly allowances) or recurring honoraria. It does not include the pension of an officer who is re-employed, or local allowances granted on account of the unhealthiness or expensiveness of particular localities, exchange compensation allowance, travelling, tentage or conveyance allowance, house rent allowance or grant of free quarters, allowance to civil surgeons for charge of railway employés, office allowances, Simla or other hill allowances, and non-recurring honoraria. But without the previous sanction of the Secretary of State no exchange compensation allowance can be granted in cases in which it is not now admissible; nor may any modification be made of the broad principles on which the rules relating to the Calcutta, Bombay and Rangoon house allowance schemes are based, including the rates and the general conditions of eligibility laid down in them.

(2) To the creation of a permanent appointment not belonging to either of the classes specified in clause (1) of this rule, of which the remuneration exceeds Rs. 500 a month; to the raising of the remuneration of an officer, or of a specified permanent appointment, not belonging to the classes specified in clause (1), to an amount in excess of Rs. 500 a month; or to the increase of a remuneration which is already in excess of that amount.

NOTE 1.—In the case of incremental pay the test for the application of this rule is the maximum pay attainable. But the grant of an increased remuneration to an officer on an incremental or time-scale pay the maximum of which rises to or exceeds Rs. 500 a month, on the condition that it shall be continued only so long as it does not cause his total remuneration to exceed that limit, does not require the sanction of the Government of India.

NOTE 2.—Where the remuneration of an officer of the class mentioned in this rule cannot equitably be fixed at a monthly rate because it would in consequence of its source be liable to fluctuation from month to month, the sanction of higher authority is required to the grant of a remuneration in excess of Rs. 6,000 a year, instead of Rs. 500 a month.

(3) To the abolition of an appointment of the classes mentioned in clause (1) above; and to any reduction in the remuneration of such an appointment.

(4) (a) To the creation of a temporary appointment, or to the deputation of any officer, when the remuneration exceeds Rs. 2,500 a month; or when the remuneration, though not exceeding Rs. 2,500 a month, exceeds Rs. 500 a month and the temporary appointment or deputation is expected to last, or does last, for more than two years.

(b) To the creation of a temporary appointment for an officer belonging to an Imperial service as defined in article 29-B, Civil Service Regulations, or to the deputation of such an officer on special duty, for the discharge of work lying outside the ordinary course of the administration, when such appointment or deputation is expected to last or does last for more than six months.

NOTE 1.—The powers of Provincial Governments to sanction deputations are limited to deputations in India. They have no power to sanction deputations outside India except in the cases mentioned in Note 2 to article 85 of the Civil Service Regulations.

NOTE 2.—In the case of temporary appointments required for Settlement work, Provincial Governments have full powers of sanction as to their number and duration, subject as regards remuneration, to the rules contained in Appendix 4-A, Civil Service Regulations.

NOTE 3.—In the case of temporary appointments in the Public Works Department, which are not filled by the deputation of pensionable officers in permanent employ, Provincial Governments have full powers of sanction, irrespective of the duration of such appointments, so long as the remuneration does not exceed Rs. 2,500 a month.

NOTE 4.—The period for which a temporary appointment or deputation has been sanctioned by higher authority may, if necessary, be extended without further reference to the authority which granted the original sanction, provided that such extension does not exceed one month.

NOTE 5.—When the remuneration of an officer appointed to a temporary appointment or placed on deputation in accordance with the limits prescribed in clause (4) of this rule is increased beyond those limits by reason only of an increase of the pay or acting allowance which the officer holding it would draw in normal circumstances, the specific sanction of the Government of India will not be required to the continuance of the temporary appointment or deputation on the increased remuneration until the expiry of the period originally sanctioned.

(5) To the grant to an officer in the service of Government, who is appointed to a temporary appointment or deputed on special duty in India, of a higher remuneration than is permitted by the following rules:—

(a) Article 79-A, Civil Service Regulations, in respect of a temporary appointment filled by an officer in the service of Government.

* In many of the cases mentioned in this rule, the sanction of the Secretary of State will also be required, but the responsibility for obtaining that will rest with the Government of India who will first have been addressed.

(3) Article 81, Civil Service Regulations, in respect of an officer deputed on special duty provided that a Provincial Government may, in exceptional cases, grant to an officer not belonging to an Imperial service (as defined) in article 29-B, Civil Service Regulations), a deputation allowance exceeding that ordinarily admissible under article 81, Civil Service Regulations.

NOTE.—This rule is to be understood as definitely precluding the grant of deputation allowances in all cases except those in which the special duty involves a decided increase of work or responsibility or a change of station. Moreover, a change of station is an ordinary incident of service in India and does not in itself constitute a reason for an addition to an officer's emoluments: accordingly the fact that the transfer to special duty involves a change of headquarters, affords a reason for the grant of a deputation allowance only if the officer is thereby placed at unusual expense, owing to the period of deputation being a short one or to some other exceptional cause. Audit Officers should question any cases in which the orders of the authority sanctioning a deputation allowance do not show that such authority definitely considered and decided that the grant of an allowance was fully justified under the terms of this rule.

(6) To provisions of permanent establishments which involve additional expenditure exceeding Rs. 20,000 a year. Further, orders involving either (a) the revision of the rates of substantive pay of any one branch of the public service at a cost to that branch of the service alone of more than Rs. 50,000 a year, or (b) the raising of the average pay of a service, of which the maximum pay exceeds Rs. 800 a month, above the average rate sanctioned at the last revision of the service as sanctioned by the Secretary of State or the Government of India, or (c) the grant of local allowances as compensation for dearness of living, or for increase of rents in any locality in which a considerable number of officers paid from Imperial revenues is employed, must be submitted in draft to the Government of India. If no orders are received by the Provincial Government thereon within three months from the date of their receipt in the Government of India, the scheme may then be brought into effect forthwith.

NOTE 1.—For the purpose of determining the above limit of Rs. 50,000 a year, the cost of any temporary establishment which the new scheme will replace may not be taken as a set-off.

NOTE 2.—In the case of establishments, such as pensee-serving establishments, the scale and remuneration of which are determined by courts of law under rules having the force of law, the sanction of the Government of India is not required under this clause unless the net extra expenditure involved, after allowing for the receipt of fees, exceeds Rs. 5 2,000 a year.

NOTE 3.—For the purpose of this clause, the cost of any particular revision is to be determined with reference to the definition of "remuneration" in clause (1) of this rule.

NOTE 4.—For the purpose of cases falling within clause (b) referred to in this clause, an incidental increase of average pay which does not amount, for any single sanction, to more than one per cent may be neglected.

(7) To the grant to non-officials, on political considerations, of (a) land either free of revenue or on favourable terms, or (b) of assignments of land revenue, if the value of the land or land revenue exceeds Rs. 1,000 a year.

Grants of either kind or other than political considerations are subject to: (i) the statutory rules which have been published by the Government of India, under the authority of the Secretary of State, in their Finance and Commerce Department Resolution No. 933, dated the 20th February 1894, and their Finance Department Resolution No. 870-Ex., dated the 31st October 1910, and which have been reproduced in the Appendix to the Finance Department Resolution No. 465-Ex., dated the 28th January 1911; or (ii) the rules published by the Government of India in their Revenue and Agricultural Department Resolutions No. 1-141-151, dated the 8th February 1872 (as amended by Resolutions No. 1-127-4, dated the 28th February 1912), No. 21-293-19, dated the 7th October 1895, and No. 12-73-17, dated the 7th September 1897; and (iii) such other general or special orders as the Government of India may have issued from time to time.

(8) To the grant to a non-official who is injured (or to the family of a non-official who is killed) during or in consequence of service rendered to Government, or who though not injured has rendered some exceptional service to Government, of a pension exceeding Rs. 1,000 a year or a gratuity exceeding Rs. 3,000 in any one case.

(9) To the grant to a civil officer, who is in Government employ or in receipt of a service pension, of:

(a) Land, except where the grant is made under the ordinary cavanne rules of the province concerned, and involves no special concession in money or its equivalent beyond the fact that the grantee has received the grant in preference to others; or—

(b) An assignment of land revenue when the total amount exceeds Rs. 600 a year, or the assignment, if within that amount, is not limited to three lives and reduced by one-half on each succession. All grants of assignments of land revenue made by a Provincial Government to civil officers should be confined to cases in which the services are of a very distinguished and exceptional character, i.e., to cases in which a special pension would be admissible with reference to the orders of the Secretary of State embodied in Appendix 9 of the Civil Service Regulations. An annual return should be submitted by each Provincial Government to the Government of India, showing any assignments of land revenue made by it to civil officers, and the grounds on which such assignments have been made.

(10) To any cash grant to a charitable or religious institution (not being a grant for a church under the Public Works Department Code) which exceeds Rs. 10,000 a year if recurring or Rs. 50,000 if non-recurring; and to any grant to a charitable or religious institution outside India.

NOTE.—Institutions designed for medical relief are included in the category of charitable institutions.

(11) To expenditure on State ceremonies and assemblies, and on the entertainment, at the public charge, of distinguished visitors to India, when the outlay is estimated to exceed Rs 1,00,000.

(12) (a) To recurring grants to local bodies from Provincial revenues exceeding Rs. 1 lakh a year in any one case.

(3) To non-recurring grants to local bodies from Provincial revenues exceeding Rs. 10 lakhs in any one case.

NOTE.—Where the grant takes the form of a contribution towards the construction of a building or other public works by Government agency, and the cost of establishment, tools and plant is thus included in the real value of the grant made, the limit on the total assistance given will be Rs. 12½ lakhs.

(13) To expenditure for the direct benefit of Native States which is estimated to exceed Rs. 10,000 a year on any one project, or Rs. 60,000 if non-recurring.

(14) To any expenditure on railway carriages specially reserved for the use of high officials otherwise than in connection with the maintenance of the carriages already set apart, with the sanction of the Secretary of State in Council, for the exclusive use of the head of the province. The previous sanction of the Government of India should be obtained to all expenditure required to replace any such carriage.

(15) To the increase of the contract grant of the head of a province.

(16) To expenditure of public money (a) on the purchase of a motor-car or motor-cycle for the use of an official; or (b) on the maintenance of such a motor car, otherwise than from the contract grant of the head of the province, except as provided in the rules published by the Government of India in their Finance Department Resolution No. 230-E.A., dated the 15th July 1912.

NOTE.—Expenditure on the hire of motor-cars for the use of the head of the province may be incurred from his contract grant without the sanction of a higher authority.

(17) To the construction or the purchase of a vessel required for inland navigation and for use at ports, the cost of which exceeds Rs 1 lakh. Within this limit a Provincial Government may sanction the construction or purchase of such vessels subject to the following conditions:—

(a) The advice of the Director, Royal Indian Marine, as regards the type and cost of the vessel to be constructed or purchased shall invariably be obtained and shall be adopted on all material points.

(b) Without the previous sanction of the Government of India no boat or vessel shall be built otherwise than at a government dockyard.

Otherwise the Government of India must be referred to.

NOTE.—These conditions do not apply to the acquisition or construction of non-seagoing vessels of any kind other than those driven by engine-power.

(18) To expenditure on an irrigation or other public works project of which the estimate of cost chargeable to general revenues exceeds Rs. 10 lakhs when provision for establishments, tools and plant is not included, and Rs. 20 lakhs when such provision is included. When the estimate for the construction of a project has been sanctioned by the Secretary of State in Council or the Government of India, a Provincial Government can sanction outlay in excess of the original sanctioned estimate, up to an amount of 10 per cent in excess of the estimate, provided that such excess is not more than Rs. 12½ lakhs including establishment, tools and plant; but any excess over a revised estimate sanctioned by the Secretary of State in Council or the Government of India can be sanctioned by these authorities only.

NOTE 1.—The rule in this clause does not apply to cases in which a work, though subsidised by a lump sum grant from Government, is undertaken by, and on the responsibility of, a local body.

NOTE 2.—The necessity for obtaining the sanction of higher authority to a project which consists of a group of works is not avoided by reason of the fact that the cost of each particular work in the project is within the powers of sanction of the Provincial Government; but this restriction does not apply to the case of irrigation projects the construction estimates of which have been closed and further capital outlay on which is being incurred under the rules for open capital expenditure.

NOTE 3.—The following projects shall be submitted to the Government of India irrespective of their cost:—

(a) Projects which affect the interests of more than one Local Government or Administration.

(b) Projects which are attended with more than ordinary engineering difficulties, e.g., docks and harbour improvements.

NOTE 4.—In the case of divisible expenditure in the North-West Frontier Province and Baluchistan of the classes mentioned in this clause, the limit of the Provincial Government's power of sanction, both in respect of original estimates and of outlay in excess of the original sanctioned estimate, is Rs. 4 lakhs exclusive of charges for establishment, tools and plant, and Rs 5 lakhs inclusive of those charges.

IV. Powers of Provincial Governments with regard to expenditure which is wholly Imperial.

11. (1) No expenditure which is wholly Imperial may be sanctioned by a Provincial Government except in cases where authority is given by the rules in this section, or by:—

(a) The provisions of any Act of the legislature or of rules framed under such an Act.

(b) Any rule in the Civil Service Regulations, the Civil Account Code, or any other code issued by, or with the approval of, the Government of India.

(c) Any order of the Government of India, laying down a scale, or a maximum scale of expenditure.

NOTE.—A Provincial Government may sanction expenditure on the construction and repair of public works executed by civil officers, subject to the rules which govern its powers of sanctioning similar expenditure incurred by officers of the Public Works Department.

(2) A Provincial Government may sanction non-recurring expenditure, not exceeding Rs. 1,000 in any individual case, on any object for which no scale or limit to its power of sanction is separately prescribed in these rules or in the Civil Service Regulations and other authorised codes, provided that the sanction does not involve express contravention of an existing rule of the Government of India, and that the expenditure would be within the power of the Government of India to sanction and would not require a reference to the Secretary of State.

12. A Provincial Government may (a) create a new permanent appointment which does not belong to the classes specified in clause (1) of rule 10 and the pay and allowances of which do not exceed Rs. 500 a month, or (b) make an addition to the pay and allowances of a sanctioned permanent appointment or of an officer, not belonging to those classes, if this does not have the effect of raising the total pay and allowances of the appointment or of the officer to an amount in excess of Rs. 500 a month; provided that (i) the additional cost involved can be met by permanent savings in the same department or some other department charged to the same major head of account, and (ii) no revision of permanent establishment, or any other scheme of expenditure, may be sanctioned which deals with any class or grade of officers as a whole.

NOTE.—All increases of establishment sanctioned under this rule should be reported to the Government of India in the Finance Department in annual statements. The sanctions may be held to have been confirmed unless exception is taken to any of them by the Government of India on a review of the statements.

13. When no savings can be effected to meet the additional cost involved but there is sufficient budget provision, a Provincial Government may, subject to proviso (ii) to rule 12:—

(1) Create a permanent non-gazetted appointment the pay and allowances of which do not exceed Rs. 250 a month, or make an addition to the pay and allowances of a permanent non-gazetted appointment or officer, if this does not have the effect of raising the total pay and allowances of the appointment or officer to an amount in excess of Rs. 250 a month.

(2) Sanction the revision of permanent non-gazetted establishments, provided that its powers of sanction in respect of individual appointments, as defined in clause (1) of this rule are not exceeded, and that the additional expenditure involved does not exceed Rs. 6,000 a year.

NOTE.—The note under rule 12 applies here also.

14. A Provincial Government may abolish, or reduce, the pay and allowances of any permanent appointment which does not belong to the classes specified in clause (1) of rule 10 and the pay and allowances of which do not exceed Rs. 500 a month.

15. A Provincial Government may sanction temporary appointments and deputations in India for any period, if the pay and allowances including deputation allowance do not exceed Rs. 250 a month. But the remuneration of an officer in the service of Government who is thus appointed to a temporary appointment or deputed on special duty must not exceed the amount which the Provincial Government is competent to sanction under clause (5) of rule 16.

16. (1) A Provincial Government may sanction recurring contingent expenditure up to a limit of Rs. 200 a year in each case; provided that it may exercise the full powers of the Government of India in respect of expenditure on the renting of ordinary office accommodation and the payment of municipal and other taxes.

NOTE.—Recurring expenditure means a charge which binds Government beyond a single payment.

(2) A Provincial Government may sanction an increase not exceeding Rs. 6,000 a year to a contract grant for contingent expenditure. It may also sanction the substitution of a contract grant for varying budget grants in respect of any heads of contingent expenditure for which countersignature has hitherto been required, provided that the former does not exceed the aggregate of the latter (calculated with reference to the budget figures of the year in which the change is made) by more than Rs. 6,000.

17. A Provincial Government may sanction.—

(1) Reduced political pension to heirs or other representatives of existing pensioners in cases in which it is already authorised to do so, and in accordance with the practice explained in the Financial despatch from the Government of India to the Secretary of State, No. 232, dated the 9th September 1909.

(2) New political life pensions up to a limit of Rs. 200 a year in each case.

(3) Increases in existing political life pensions, provided that in no case is the total pension thereby raised beyond Rs. 200 a year.

(4) Political gratuities not exceeding Rs. 1,000 in any one case.

(5) Non-recurring expenditure on behalf of political pensioners—such as grants towards the funeral expenses of deceased pensioners, the provision of dowries for daughters, allowances to meet the expense of proceeding under orders of competent authority from one locality to another, and expenditure on other than ordinary repairs (as for example the installation of electric lights and fans) in connection with the residences with which pensioners are provided in certain cases at the cost of the State—if the amount does not exceed, in any case, Rs. 1,000.

DEFINITION.—Political pensions and gratuities are pensions and gratuities granted to non-officials whose services, descent, or connections are such that it is on general grounds of policy very desirable that the Government should extend to them some measure of assistance or recognition.

NOTE 1.—It is not permissible to grant a pension and a gratuity to the same individual under clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this rule.

NOTE 2.—A Provincial Government may sanction expenditure on the ordinary maintenance of residences provided for pensioners at the cost of the State, subject to the rules in the Public Works Department Code.

18. A Provincial Government may—

(1) Sanction an original work, including additions and alterations, required for an existing church up to a limit of Rs. 1,500 at one time, provided that the total expenditure on the church does not exceed the total grant permissible under the rules in part V of the Ecclesiastical rules embodied in Appendix 10 of the Public Works Department Code.

(2) Sanction works in cemeteries attached to churches, and in cemeteries the expenditure on which is Imperial, up to a limit of Rs. 1,500 at one time, when the works are admissible under the Ecclesiastical rules embodied in Appendix 10 of the Public Works Department Code.

(3) Sanction additions and alterations to chaplains' quarters, provided that the expenditure does not exceed the limit laid down in paragraph 917-IV of the Public Works Department Code.

(4) Sanction proposals relating to the renewal and repair of furniture and articles of service to churches which are admissible under rule 27 in part V of the Ecclesiastical rules embodied in Appendix 10 of the Public Works Department Code.

(5) Sanction ecclesiastical expenditure in excess of that permissible under, or not covered by, the rules in part V of the Ecclesiastical rules embodied in Appendix 10 of the Public Works Department Code, on additions or alterations to a church which is the property of Government under rule 32 of those rules, or to a building subsidiary thereto, up to a maximum aggregate of Rs. 500 in the case of any one church.

V. Budget rules restricting the spending powers of Provincial Governments

19. The exercise by a Provincial Government of its financial powers is subject to the ordinary rules of the Budget system. The most important of these rules affecting the exercise of such powers are given below.

20. Provincial Governments are required, in ordinary circumstances and apart from famine requirements, to maintain balances of the following minimum amounts :—

	Rs.
Madras	20 lakhs.
Bombay	20 ,,
Bengal	20 ,,
United Provinces of Agra and Oudh	20 ,,
Punjab	10 ,,
Burma	12 ,,
Bihar and Orissa	12 ,,
Central Provinces and Berar	10 ,,
Assam	10 ,,

21. A Provincial Government may not budget for a deficit unless it satisfies the Government of India that the cause is exceptional and non-recurring, and also, if the deficit involves a reduction of the provincial balances below the prescribed minimum, that suitable arrangements will be made for the restoration of the minimum. Accountants-General are required to make a report to the local Government and to the Government of India when it appears to them that there is any likelihood of the balance being reduced below the minimum. When a Provincial Government proposes to budget for a considerable deficit, the proposal should be forwarded to the Government of India for separate consideration in advance of the estimates.

22. If a Provincial Government exhausts its own balances and receives permission to overdraw upon the general balances, it will be required to take the necessary amount as a short loan from the Government of India. The loan will bear interest at such rates, and will be repayable in such instalments as the Government of India may prescribe.

23. In passing the provincial budgets for any year, the Government of India will fix a limit for ordinary plus fresh recurring expenditure. All extraordinary receipts, whether recorded in the accounts as such under "XXV.—Miscellaneous" or as ordinary revenue under any other head, will, subject to the approval of the Government of India to the necessary provision being made in the budget, be applied to such non-recurring outlay on public works or other objects as the local Governments (assisted by the advice of their Legislative Councils where these exist) may determine. The Government of India will not ordinarily allow such receipts to be used for the purpose of affording relief towards meeting the ordinary civil works expenditure of a province in such a manner as indirectly to set free funds for recurring expenditure under any head. Moreover, when a Provincial Government has taken a loan under rule 22, the Government of India will not, save in very exceptional circumstances, allow extraordinary receipts to be used for non-recurring expenditure on public works or other objects until the whole of such loan is repaid. In a year in which there is no object of sufficient urgency and importance to justify the expenditure thereon of such extraordinary receipts, they should be added to the provincial balances as a reserve against future emergencies. In submitting the budget estimates the local Government should draw the attention of the Government of India to the existence of these special items of revenue and to the manner in which it is proposed to dispose of them.

24. A Provincial Government cannot sanction any expenditure during a year which will involve an excess over the Budget grant for the year under any head of account, unless it can effect re-appropriation (i.e., reduce by the amount of the excess the sanctioned grant under some other Imperial or Provincial head of account under its control, as the case may be), subject to the provisions of rule 26.

NOTE.—In the case of Forest expenditure, a Provincial Government may sanction outlay for which no provision exists in the Budget and which it cannot meet by re-appropriation, provided that such expenditure is covered by additional revenue earned within the same financial year. All such cases should be reported to the Government of India in the Finance Department.

25. A Provincial Government may sanction re-appropriations—

(1) Between the grants for Provincial expenditure included in its estimates, whether under a wholly Provincial or a divided major or minor head provided that—

(a) The aggregate grant for Provincial expenditure is not exceeded.

(b) Any portion of the aggregate grant which has been specially sanctioned by the Government of India to meet non-recurring expenditure from Provincial balances or from extraordinary receipts (i.e., any excess of the aggregate grant over the limit for ordinary plus fresh recurring expenditure referred to in rule 23) cannot be diverted to meet recurring expenditure.

NOTE.—To enable audit officers to see that this rule is properly observed, Provincial Governments should show in their published estimates under each major head of account the amount of the grant specially sanctioned by the Government of India to meet non-recurring expenditure.

(2) Between the grants for Imperial expenditure included in its estimates under Divided major or minor heads, the head "24—Ecclesiastical," and the wholly Imperial major or minor heads included in the groups "Direct Demands on the Revenue," "Interest" and "Miscellaneous Civil charges"; provided that the total of the Imperial grants for all these heads is not exceeded

26. Any excess over the Budget grants for Imperial expenditure under any head not mentioned in clause (2) of rule 25, as well as any excess which causes the limits mentioned in clauses (1) and (2) of that rule to be exceeded, requires the sanction of the Government of India. A Provincial Government cannot sanction any expenditure which may lead to such an excess unless it has obtained the sanction of the Government of India to a supplementary grant.

VI. Powers of Provincial Governments to grant loans.

27. Advances and loans may be granted by Provincial Governments, for any of the purposes enumerated below, out of allotments placed at their disposal by the Government of India :—

Class I.—Advances to cultivators under the Land Improvement Loans Act, the Agriculturists' Loans Act, or any other Acts; loans under the Co-operative Credit Societies Act; and loans under the Burma Fisheries Act.

Class II.—Advances under special laws not coming within class I such as the Bengal Drainage and Embankment Acts, and the Bundelkhand Encumbered Estates Act.

Class III.—Loans to native states; and loans to landholders and notabilities apart from the provisions of any law.

Class IV.—Loans to municipalities (other than Presidency corporations), district or local boards and other local authorities, under the Local Authorities Loans Act or any other Act.

Class V.—Miscellaneous loans and advances which do not fall strictly under any of the above classes, and are not expressly provided for in the Civil Account Code or other authorised codes.

28. All loans and advances granted by the Provincial Governments under rule 27 are subject to the following limitations and restrictions :—

(1) The procedure described by the various Acts of the legislature, and by rules framed thereunder by competent authority, for making applications for loans should be observed, as well as any conditions laid down in such Acts and rules governing the grant of the loans

(2) No loan can be granted, which is—

(a) Of an unusual nature.

(b) Devoted to objects outside the ordinary work of administration.

NOTE.—In any case where a cash grant would be within the powers of sanction of the Provincial Government, the grant of a loan of an amount not exceeding that of the cash grant, does not require the sanction of higher authority.

(3) No loan can be granted under class III in excess of Rs. 5 lakhs; nor can a series of separate loans under this class be granted at short intervals to the same recipient, so as to make the aggregate amount exceed Rs. 5 lakhs.

(4) Loans to private individuals under class III may only be made when they involve some purpose of a public or political character.

(5) No loan may be granted under class V without the sanction of the Government of India.

(6) No loan may be granted at a lower rate of interest than 4 per cent, except where otherwise provided in any rules framed by competent authority under an Act of the legislature.

(7) Borrowers should be required to adhere strictly to the terms settled for the loans made to them; and no modification of those terms in their favour should be made subsequently except for very special reasons.

Provincial Governments may remit, without reference to the Government of India, the payment of interest on loans and may also remit and write off as Provincial expenditure any irrecoverable balances of the loans. They may also permit the postponement of an instalment in repayment of principal, subject to the condition that such postponement does not involve a longer period for the repayment of the loan than could have been fixed by the local Government when the loan was given.

(8) A penal rate of compound interest not less than 6 per cent a year should be enforced, at the discretion of the Provincial Government and so far as the law allows, upon all overdue instalments of interest or principal and interest.

(9) The amount of loans granted in any year should not be such as to cause the total amount sanctioned by the Government of India for net payments on account of loans and advances of all classes coming under the Provincial Loan Account, to be exceeded. Subject to this condition, a Provincial Government may transfer funds sanctioned for one class to meet demands falling under another class, and may utilise any excess repayments during the currency of the year in making fresh loans and advances; but no re-appropriations to class III for loans to private individuals are permissible from undisbursed portions of allotment provided for the other classes.

(10) The rules of procedure and accounting in articles 133 to 136-A of the Civil Account Code should be observed.

29. Provincial Governments may sanction house-building and other miscellaneous advances, subject to the rules in the Civil Account Code and other authorised codes.

VII. General instructions as to audit.

30. In applying these rules, audit officers may assume that all the provisions of the Civil Service Regulations, the Civil Account Code, the Public Works Department Code, the Forest Code, and any other authorised code, have received the sanction of the Secretary of State in Council in all cases in which that sanction is necessary.

For the admission of any charges which do not, under the conditions stated in these rules, require the sanction of the Government of India or of the Secretary of State in Council, the authority of the Provincial Government is sufficient. But the head of an audit office is at liberty, in his discretion and when the matter is of importance, to draw the attention of the Comptroller General to special cases not referred to in these rules in order that the Comptroller General may consider whether the case should be brought to the notice of the Government of India.

31. In all cases in which there is reason to doubt whether the expenditure is within its competences to sanction, a Provincial Government should, before sanctioning the expenditure, invariably obtain a report from its audit officer showing whether the expenditure is within its powers of sanction.

Any objection raised by the audit officer under these rules to any order issued by a Provincial Government should be submitted for the orders of the Government of India, together with a copy of the audit officer's objection statement: provided that a Provincial Government can in certain circumstances permit disallowances by audit officers under the rules in article 979-A of the Civil Account Code. In submitting to the Government of India any proposed which involves expenditure beyond the powers of sanction of a Provincial Government, the latter should obtain and forward with it a report from the audit officer indicating whether the expenditure is within the powers of sanction of the Government of India or requires a reference to the Secretary of State.

Simla, the 29th [illegible]

No. 6426-78-W.-II.—The following Royal Proclamation is published for general information :—

By the [illegible].

A PROCLAMATION

FOR PROHIBITING THE IMPORTATION OF CERTAIN ARTICLES INTO THE UNITED KINGDOM.

GEORGE R.I.

Whereas by section forty-three of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, it is provided that the importation of arms, ammunition, gunpowder, or any other goods may be prohibited by Proclamation :

And whereas it is expedient that the importation into the United Kingdom of certain goods should be prohibited as hereinafter provided:

Now, therefore, We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, in pursuance of the said Act and of all other powers enabling us in that behalf, do hereby proclaim, direct and ordain as follows:—

As from and after the sixth day of July, 1916, subject as hereinafter provided, the importation into the United Kingdom of the following goods is hereby prohibited, viz.:—

Such motor cars, chassis, parts and accessories (other than tyres) as were expressly exempted from the prohibition on the importation of motor cars, chassis, motor cycles and parts and accessories thereof which was imposed by the Prohibition of Import (No. 3) Proclamation, 1916.

Vacuum cleaners.

Yeast.

Provided always, and it is hereby declared, that this prohibition shall not apply to any such goods which are imported under licence given by or on behalf of the Board of Trade, and subject to the provisions and conditions of such licence.

This Proclamation may be cited as the Prohibition of Import (No. 7) Proclamation, 1916.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Twenty-seventh day of June, in the year of our Lord One Thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and in the Seventh year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

No. 6432-W.-II.—The following Royal Proclamation is published for general information :—

By the King.

A PROCLAMATION

MAKING CERTAIN ADDITIONS TO THE LIST OF ARTICLES TO BE TREATED AS CONTRABAND OF WAR

GEORGE R.I.

Whereas on the 24th day of October, 1914, We did issue Our Royal Proclamation specifying the articles which it was Our intention to treat as contraband during the continuance of hostilities, or until We did give further public notice; and

Whereas on the 27th day of January, 1915, and the 12th day of April, 1916, We did by Our Royal Proclamations of those dates make certain additions to and modifications in the said list of articles to be treated as contraband; and

Whereas it is expedient to make certain further additions to the said list:

Now, therefore, We do hereby declare, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, that during the continuance of the war or until We do give further public notice, the following articles will be treated as absolute contraband in addition to those set out in Our Royal Proclamations aforementioned:—

Electric appliances adapted for use in war and their component parts.

Asphalt, bitumen, pitch, and tar.

Sensitized photographic films, plates, and paper.

Felspar.

Goldbeaters' skins.

Talc.

Bamboo.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Twenty-seventh day of June, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and in the Seventh year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

No. 6433-80 W.-II.—The following Order in Council is published for general information :—

AT THE COUNCIL CHAMBER, WHITEHALL.

THE 28TH DAY OF JUNE 1916

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

Whereas it is provided by section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation or Order in Council made under section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, as amended by the Act now in recital, may, whilst a state of war exists, be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas it is provided by section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Restriction) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation made under section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, may, whether the Proclamation was made before or after the passing of the Act now in recital, be varied or added to, whilst a state of war exists, by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas by a Proclamation, dated the 10th day of May 1916, and made under section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879 and section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, and section 1 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, the exportation from the United Kingdom of certain articles to certain or all destinations was prohibited;

And whereas by subsequent Orders of Council the said Proclamation was amended and added to in certain particulars;

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Board of Trade to the following effect:—

That the Proclamation, dated the 10th day of May 1916, as amended and added to by subsequent Orders of Council, should be further amended by making the following amendments in and additions to the schedule to the same:—

(1) That the following headings should be deleted:—
Woods, the following:—
(c) Lignum vitæ;
(e) Mahogany.

(2) That the following headings should be added:—

(q) Rattan, woven;
(r) Tow;
(s) Varnishes, air, containing gum;
(t) Vinegar containing not more than 8 per cent of acetic acid;
(u) Vinegar essence and similar preparations containing more than 6 per cent of acetic acid;
(v) Wire, barbed, and galvanised wire;
Woods, the following:—
(a) Beechwood;
(c) Birch;
(e) Boxwood;
(f) Boxwood;
(g) Greenheart;
(i) Hickory;
(j) Lancewood;
(k) Lignum vitæ;
(l) Mahogany;
(m) Padauk;
(o) Satin;
(q) Teak;
(s) Whitewood.

(3) That on and after the 15th day of July 1916, the headings "(A) Bags and sacks made of Jute" and "(c) Jute wrappers (Burrel tarn)" should be deleted and there be substituted therefor the heading "(a) Bags, wrappers or sacks made of jute, other than any such bags, wrappers or sacks as constitute the coverings of goods to be shipped for exportation and are allowed by the Commissioners of Customs and Excise to be shipped as such coverings."

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved.

Whereof the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs and Excise, the Director of the War Trade Department, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

No. 379.—His Excellency the Governor in Council, with the previous sanction of His Excellency the Governor-General in Council, hereby declares, under the provisions of section 24 of the Madras Forest Act of 1882, that the area specified below, which was declared to be reserved forest under section 16 of the Act, in notification No 292, dated 21th July 1886, published on page 659 of Part I of the Fort St George Gazette, dated 6th August 1886, shall cease to be reserved forest with effect from 15th October 1916 —

Name of the reserve disforested.	District.	Taluk.	Village.	Extent in acres.
Reddipalle plantation	Cuddapah ..	Pullampet ..	1. Chinna Orampad . 2 Reddipalle.	1,416

Boundary description.—North.—The boundary of the old Reddipalle plantation.

North-east.—The Madras Railway line.

East.—The line coincident with the boundary of the old plantation for about a quarter of a mile and then runs south-east to the north west corner of survey No. 352 of Chinna Orampad village. Thence along the western boundary of the last-named survey number and along the eastern boundary of survey No. 322 to a stream.

South.—Thence the line runs along the stream to the village boundary stone at the south-west angle of survey No 318 of Chinna Orampad village and thence along the boundary of the old plantation.

West.—The line continues to run along the boundary of the same plantation.

Extent.—The area consists of scrub jungle with small and scattered tamarind and melia trees.

Reasons for disforestation.—The reserve was placed in class V, according to the Forest Committee's classification approved in G O. No. 3020, Revenue, dated 13th October 1913. As, however, the ryots of the adjoining villages are not willing to take over the reserve on the panchayat system, the tree growth has been sold and disforestation is proposed.

Coimbatore.	Nazareth.	Vizianagram.
Ernakulam (for Drawing).	Ongole.
Guntur	Palghat.

N.B.—Should the number of candidates who have applied to be examined at any one of the above centres fall short of thirty, the candidates that selected that centre must be prepared to proceed, at their own expense, to the nearest centre where the examination may be held. Timely notice will be given to the candidates concerned.

3. No notice will be taken of the application of any candidate who selects a centre which is not in the above list, and no candidate will be allowed to name more than one centre. No candidate will on any account be allowed to change the place of examination entered in his application, which must invariably be the place where he is employed or ordinarily resides, or should at last be a centre, the party elected to or where the examination is to be held. A candidate appearing for examination at a centre other than the one mentioned by him in his application must be prepared to have his examination annulled.

4. In addition to the above centres, the Commissioner will be prepared to arrange for the holding of the Written examination in any of the subjects mentioned, at any other place, if he is satisfied that not fewer than thirty candidates are likely to offer themselves for examination, and it is advisable to make such place a centre. Applications for the inclusion of such place or places in the list of centres should be made to the Commissioner through the local educational or other authorities concerned before the 17th August. Ordinarily, however, only one place will be constituted a centre for each district.

5. The oral and practical examinations in such subjects as require them will be held at those places only where satisfactory arrangements can be made for the conduct of such examinations.

N.B.—To guard against disappointment in the case of such of the Oral and Practical examinations as may be held before the written examination, candidates are recommended to refer to Part I-B of the Fort St. George Gazette from time to time.

6. Candidates whose examinations, either written or oral and practical, cannot be arranged for at any place must, at their own expense, proceed to Madras or to the nearest centre where they are held in the subjects in which they appear.

7. Heads of institutions are requested to see, before the certificate at the foot of the application is signed by them, that their institution has been recognised by competent authority, as fitted to impart instruction in the Technical subjects and for the grades in them brought up by their pupils.

N.B.—Heads of institutions recognised for General Education only should not sign the certificate at the foot of the application form filled in by any of their pupils coming up for any of the Technical Examinations.

8. All pupils coming up from the same institution must select the same centre and the applications of all of them should be forwarded together (along with a covering letter stating the number of applications) by the head of that institution, no applications of any private candidates being enclosed with these applications.

9. Each candidate must, wherever the syllabus requires it, submit, before the 31st August, the necessary drawings, plans, surveys, field books, estimates, or other "worked works." Each of the drawings, etc., submitted must have entered on it the name of the candidate, the subject and grade of examination for which he appears and the centre at which he appears, and must be certified to be his own unaided work by the head of the institution or officer to which he belongs, by an officer of the Public Works Department not below the rank of Supervisor, by a District Board Engineer, by the Engineer of the Corporation of Madras, or by an Engineer of any Railway Company.

Candidates are especially warned that no certified works will be valued by examiners unless the certificate of authorship is quite satisfactory, and specifies clearly the period of time occupied in the execution of each work and unless the examiners are satisfied as to the identity and qualifications of the persons granting the certificates. Further, if any suspicion attaches to any certified works submitted by pupils from Technical Schools the Commissioner will be compelled to recommend to the authority concerned the withdrawal of the departmental privileges enjoyed by the schools. Private candidates, whose certified works are in any way suspected by the examiners, will be liable to have their examinations invalidated and also to be debarred from appearing for any of the examinations under the control of the Commissioner for such term of years as the Commissioner may think fit.

It must be particularly noted that the drawings, etc., of each candidate should be submitted in a separate roll for each subject and for each grade (i.e., the drawings, etc. for a number of subjects should not be rolled up together), and that the drawings, etc., of a number of candidates should not be sent in one and the same roll. Also, on the outside of each roll for each subject, each candidate should enter the following particulars in ink:—

(1) Name of candidate,
(2) Place of examination,
(3) Subject,
(4) Grade, and
(5) Total number of drawings in each roll

As the application has to be kept in the office and as the drawings, etc., have to be forwarded to the examiners, the application itself should be sent in a separate cover and not rolled up with the drawings, etc.

A candidate who failed, or having applied, did not appear, at a previous examination, must submit fresh drawings, etc. The drawings, etc., submitted will on no account be returned.

10. Candidates must send in their applications made out in English on printed forms so that they reach the Commissioner's office on or before the 31st August, after which date no applications will be received. Only one form of application should be used by each candidate, although he may bring up several subjects and come up for different grades.

11. Candidates in the mufassal should obtain the required application forms from the treasury of the taluk in which they are resident or of the district to which they belong. Candidates in the Native States of Mysore, Travancore and Cochin should obtain them from the Honourable the Resident's Treasury. Candidates who are residents of Madras should apply for application forms at the office of the Commissioner for Government Examinations, Old College, Nungambakkam, and not to the Collector of Madras.

N.B.—No notice will be taken of any application from candidates in the mufassal requesting to be supplied with application forms from this office.

12. The following is the scale of fees to be paid by candidates for admission to the examinations:—

	Elementary.	Intermediate	Advanced.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
For each subject	3	5	10

N.B.—No candidate will be permitted to come up for examination in more than one grade in the same subject at the same time.

13. The prescribed fee must be paid in every case into a Government Treasury, or, if at Madras, into the Bank of Madras, and the receipt given by the Treasury Officer or the Bank of Madras, attached to the application, which must in every case reach the Commissioner's office on or before the 31st August. In no account will the fees be received in the Commissioner's Office, whether sent in cash or by Post Office orders. No application will be registered unless it reaches the Commissioner's Office, by the date prescribed.

NOTE.—At Madras, in the case of all pupils, the fees should be collected by the Headmaster and sent in a lump sum to the Bank of Madras together with two lists of the pupils, one of which will be returned by the Bank and the other signed and returned to the Headmaster. This latter list should be forwarded to this office along with the applications of the candidates. The necessary forms for this purpose will be supplied by this office to Headmasters on application.

14. Each application should be sent direct to the undersigned, post-paid, superscribed and addressed as follows, the receipt for the fee paid being securely fastened to it.

☞Candidates are warned that the application itself should not be enclosed with any drawings, plans, surveys, field books, estimates, or other "certified works" that may be sent, but should be submitted in a separate cover.

[Application for admission to the Government Technical Examinations.]

To

The Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations,

Nungambakkam, Madras, S.W.

N.B.—Candidates anxious to assure themselves that their applications have been received should enclose an addressed post card in their respective applications. The post card should bear the sender's address only and no other writing. Such post cards will be returned to them in due course with the "Received" stamp of the office impressed upon them. No other form of acknowledgment except that required by the postal rules regarding registered covers can possibly be given nor will any notice be taken of any letter from any candidate inquiring whether his application has been received. Insufficiently stamped covers will be rejected.

16. Candidates should write their names, their father's names and their house names distinctly and in full in their applications and give their address in full also; if "Other Hindus", they should state in column 8 of their applications whether they are "Non-Brahman Caste Hindus" or "Panchamas". Applications which are irregular or defective in any particular will not be taken notice of.

NOTE.—The occupation or profession of candidates, or the appointments held by them should invariably be stated—in full—in column 10 of their applications.

18. The fee paid will, in no case whatsoever, be refunded, nor will it be reserved for a subsequent examination. Neither will any excess fee that may have been inadvertently paid be returned. Candidates are warned to study the notification carefully and satisfy themselves, before remitting their fees, that they fulfil the prescribed conditions of admission to the examination and that they can, if necessary, proceed, at their own expense, beyond the limits of the examination centre selected by them, for the purpose of undergoing the Written, or the Oral and Practical examination.

17. Candidates for the Intermediate or Advanced examinations whose names have already been published in the Gazette as having passed a particular stage or stages in subjects in which the examination is divided into stages, or as having passed the Intermediate (late Preliminary) where the examination is of two grades—Intermediate and Advanced—must in their applications cite the date and page of the Gazette in which their name appear and their number in the list of successful candidates.

18. The examinations in the subjects under "Drawing, etc.," will be conducted in the order of time and subjects set forth in the following table. Candidates will not be allowed to come up to more than one of the subjects bracketed together for the same time on the same day in the table below, or for more than one grade of examination in the same subject in the same year.

WOMEN'S MEDICAL COLLEGE, DELHI.

It is notified for the information of candidates intending to join the Lady Hardinge Medical College for Women at Delhi that the institution will be open to students on the 28th September 1916 and that lectures and classes will begin on the 2nd October. The College has been affiliated in the preliminary stages to the Punjab University, and will prepare students for the M.B., B.S. degree of that University. Candidates seeking admission should produce certificates of physical fitness to undergo a course of medical training as well as of good moral character. Preference will be given to students who have passed at least the Intermediate Arts or corresponding examination, but a certain number possessing the minimum general educational qualification of the Matriculation or equivalent standard will also be admitted. Students of the latter class will be required to undergo a separate course in English and Mathematics for which special arrangements have been made within the College itself, and their entire course will extend to seven instead of the ordinary six years.

2. The institution possesses separate hostel accommodation for Hindus, Muhammadans, Sikhs and Christians (including Parsees and those accustomed to live in the European style). Boarding will be provided with due regard to caste and other considerations at moderate rates.

3. Forms of application for admission to the college, details as to scholarships, and any further information required may be obtained from the Principal of the College (Rasina, Delhi).
